Rob Crabtree posted:

I will always remember Mr. Shedd not only being a fine next door neighbor but also a close friend who always spoke and treated all of the neighborhood children with class and dignity. To this day, in his prime, I do not know that I have ever met anyone with a stronger work ethic and he was truly the best painter around. My family and I send our deepest sympathies to Gary and his family, Shelia, and especially to Greg and his family. Mr. and Mrs. Shedd were always supportive when Greg and the rest of our gang played ball in the street. Due to his strong Christian faith, I know he has joined my parents and many others who shaped our lives in a much better place. He had a significant impact on my childhood and for that I am eternally grateful. We certainly all appreciated his genuine caring and strong character. Herbert Shedd was a fine man. Robert M.
