I am so sorry for your loss. I loved meeting her when you guys came to Cripple Creek to visit with Frances and the family. I tried to keep in touch after Frances passed but time gets away from us all. Sadie was so fun and happy to be around all those years ago. The funny part is when we went shopping at the mall and she swore she wore a size 6 shoes, put her in a 7 1/2 and she couldn't believe how good her feet felt. (smile) and the trip we made up Pikes Peak on the train and the trip we made down to the Mollie Kathleen mine, she was "surprised" at being crammed into that little cage with strangers. Again, We are sorry for your loss. Ken (Merle), Allison & Terry (Bush) (719) 659-2157
