I am so very sorry for your loss. I hope that it is comforting to know that our Creator, Jehovah God, understands our grief. More than that, he longs to use his almighty power to restore life to our loved ones. Notice the hope recorded at Job 14:15: "You will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands." We are the work of God's hands and the Creator who was responsible for our life can certainly restore us to life after death. May these thoughts along with your warm memories give you comfort during this difficult time.

I don't know Bear but I am a custodial worker at JSFP and would like to send my condolences on your loss. I also have lost my mother and it is a painful day and does not end anytime soon. I lift you and your family up in prayer. I like to think my mother is not gone, just gone on to prepare for me when I am called home. God Bless you and your family. I will remember you all in my daily and nightly prayers. Facility Management Custodian Karla Gorman.
