I am very sorry for the lose of Ms. Emma. she was a very fine lady who I had the pleasure of knowing only a few years. I loved her very much and have missed seeing her. I prayed for her daily and now she is in the presence of our Lord. prayers for all the family. I will miss her sweet little face. Her Dear Friend, Deborah Stoker

So sorry for your loss; but, I know there was rejoicing in Heaven; especially, being with all her loved ones there and Jesus! Oh, but to be with Donna, my friend and classmate, had to be wonderful! Praise God. Love and prayers to all of you!

Oh, my heart is so sad to hear of my sweet Aunt Emma Ray's passing but my soul rejoices at her homegoing. My growing up memories always include her & her sparkle!! Always ready with a witty quip & a brilliant smile that warmed you all over. It's strange how, even though special folks aren't in your life every day, your life seems more empty to know they are gone from this earth. Love & prayers to all you dear cousins who must grieve the loss of your mama. May God grant you many happy memories to bring smiles that soothe the ache in your heart. Heaven is even more home now. Love always, Debbie

It is with much sadness that I learned of Emma Ray's death. Like Debbie and Melba, I have very fond memories of her through out my life. I always admired her ability to deal with whatever life brought her way. She hurt deeply with the tragedies she had to face, but she still found the strength and grace to comfort others in their time of need. In my mind I can hear her voice and her laughter and see the twinkle in her eyes as she talked. I wish I could be there for her service, but I don't think I'll be able to get there in time. My prayer is that God will give each of you the strength you need to face this most difficult time. Much love to you all. Paulette
