What a wonderful man, from such a wonderful family! Kerry D., as I called him, was one of the nicest and most honorable men I ever had the pleasure of meeting--bar none. It sounds cliché, but Heaven has truly gained another angel. To his wife, daughter, mother, siblings, as well as countless friends, please know that he is now at peace, safe in the arms of Our Lord, and free of any earthly suffering. It is so hard to turn loose of a loved one, but believe me when I say that Kerry is waiting for you to come see him when the time comes and Jesus calls us all home. We will keep Holli, Heather, and the rest of his family in our prayers. May Almighty God comfort and console you now and forever.
