The Mitchell family in Titusville, FL always looked forward to a summer visit from Uncle Glen and Aunt Mary Jo. We always had a trip to Dixie Crossroads Seafood Restaurant. Mary Jo was sweet, loving and funny . She will forever be in our memories and we will see her again in Heaven!!! Love you Tammy and Missy.

So many happy memories of Mary Jo and the fun times we had back in the 1950s. She was a very good friend , especially to my sister Patricia Potter Banks. Pat sends her condolences. She said she remembers Mary Jo as being such a sweet and good person.
