My father, Floyd Cosby, worked for Roy for many many years. we lived side by side for a long time. I am Christine Cosby Weeks. My father and mother are no longer living and neither is my brother James (Jimmy) Cosby. I have very fond memories of the family. I know I worked with one of Roy's daughters-in-law but just can't remember her name. Dot you know I thought the world of you. You always was nice and helpful with Jim and me.

I remember telling Mr. Perkins that new televisions did not have to be unplug every single night, and he and Ms. Dot, answering me that if they let the TV plugged in all night, it would fry. So every morning, I just plug the tv and turn it on. Mr. Perkins was always very nice and sweet. Mr Perkins you will be missed.

Roy was one of my spiritual heroes! He gave me my first job cand by his example, taught me much about connecting with others. Roy was a people person, had a great sense of humor and it was a joy to be around. He love God, his family, and anyone else who crossed his path. I loved Roy & one day I will see him again!

It was such an Honor and Privilege to get to take care of this Precious Man for a little while..I always brought my stuff and snacks in a blue lunch bag...Every day he would ramble in it to see what candy or cookies I had brought..Then turn around and grin big at me..Some great times and laughs I will always cherish..Prayers for all and Thank you to the Family...
