Mama, it was so hard to leave you at the Funeral home last night all alone. My heart is broken and I know today will be difficult when we lay you to rest. I will miss our talks and your cooking special things for me. You looked so pretty last night and I know you would have been pleased with everything. I know you are not seeing this because you are with Jesus but it helps me get through by typing it out. Thank you for all of the life lessons you taught me and for teaching me about God and Jesus, You did well and I am sure you are hearing "Well done, my good and faithful servant". Until we meet again. Farewell , see you soon! Love forever and always Randy
