You were so funny and had no filter. I could turn your face red instantly! You were fun to hang out with, work with., and your smile lit up the room. Man... it's weird not seeing you everyday. For the past couple weeks you made sure to go out of your way and tell me you hoped I had a great day. I dont know why you did that but it was sweet.. You used to walk me into work, and you made sure to put a smile on my face. When you lived in Scottsboro we'd basically race eachother to work. I remember when you first started Toyota, and Ryan got me to talk to you... i was thankful to have your friendship, because you made me feel valued. I really will miss our daily antics and your goofiness. Rest easy buddy. May your family find peace.
