Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy; O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen May you rest in peace my dear friend. With years of fond memories of you Betsy. Kathy

My dear Bryan and Mrs. Caperton, I worked with Betsy for many years, at H.D. Lees as well as Beaulieu. I can't begin to tell you how well liked Betsy was. She was such a good friend to me for many years. Her laughter, her wit would light up a room. I lost touch with Betsy when I moved out of state. I would ask about her every chance I had from those that loved her as many did. I am deeply saddened at her passing. My prayers are with you. May God grant you peace and comfort. My deepest sympathy to you and your family.

Dear Bryan and Mrs. Caperton, Terry and I were so sorry to hear of Betsy's passing. She was a fine person and I am glad to have known her and to be a fellow classmate of hers at Stevenson High School. May God bless and comfort you, in your time of sorrow and loss. Sincerely, Amanda Pace Wann and Terry Wann
