Blessed to have Nanny in our lives. The way she loved and prayed is like no other. We will miss her deeply. Grateful for her love, kindness, the amazing memories and for the yummy comfort food she loved to feed us. I adore her for how much she loved our sons-she spoiled Nick so much! I will miss our chats and her sweet, and tender smiley face. Nanny, I can't wait to hug you again-We love you forever! ❤️ 👤

How do you choose one memory to share of such a sweet, generous, genuine woman? All the mornings we spent drinking coffee and solving the world's problems, I can see her smile and moving her hands - hands that were a tremendous comfort to me and my son in our darkest time, hands that made the most delicious dinners, hands that held me as she told me that she loved me like I was her own. Same, Kay. Same.
